

Celebration 20

Free Schoolhouse Sessions

The Schoolhouse is in the rear of the Conference Center where the quilts are on display.

Bed Turning (located in the Atrium)

Facilitator: Lisa Hart, Tri-County Quilt Guild Member and Owner, Handmade by Hart

Rest tired feet, and view a beautiful collection of red, white, and blue quilts during this popular session. Celebrate Tri-County Quilt Guild's 20th anniversary and our nation's upcoming semi-quicentennial.

Fri Feb 27 12:30pm-1:15pm

Sat Feb 28 11:45am-12:30pm

Fabric Flowers

Facilitator: Nancy Youens, Tri-County Quilt Guild Board Member and Celebrate 20 Featured Quilter

Express your creativity in this hands-on session and learn a technique for making beautiful non-sew fabric flowers. Create a flower during class and leave with ideas on how to use fabric flowers to add beauty to your favorite space.

Fri Feb 27 11:45am-12:30pm

Sat Feb 28 12:15pm-1:00pm

Playing Around with Disappearing Flying Geese

Facilitator: Jackie Hillman, Tri-County Quilt Guild Member

Join award-winning quilter Jackie Hillman for this hands-on workshop featuring her signature Disappearing Flying Geese technique, including a lecture, and trunk show of many of her quilts showcased at International Quilt Festival in 2023. Participants will explore various ways to split Flying Geese blocks, along with inspiration for designing their own blocks using split Flying Geese paper pieces. Participants will receive handouts including design suggestions and charts for creating blocks in different sizes.

Fri Feb 27 10:45am-11:30am

Sat Feb 28 2:15pm-3:00pm

Slow Stitching 101

Facilitator: Patty Mooney, Tri-County Quilt Guild Member

Slow stitching is an ancient practice that combines traditional hand-stitching with creativity and promotes both relaxation and sustainability. Participants will practice various slow-stitch techniques on a quilt block.

Fri Feb 27 1:00pm-1:45pm

Sat Feb 28 1:15pm-2:00pm

Quilty Tips and Tools

Facilitator: Bridgette Woods, Tri-County Quilt Guild Member

Hear quilting tips from expert quilters and gain guidance on how to use those nifty gadgets stashed away in your sewing room. Share your favorite tool, a helpful tip, or just sit back and soak up some knowledge from seasoned quilters.

Sat Feb 28 11:15am-12:00pm

Using African Wax Prints in Quilting Projects

Facilitator: Stephanie Moss, Tri-County Quilt Guild Member

Learn more about African wax prints (Ankara) and discover ways to integrate these vibrant textiles in quilting projects. View items made using these rich, colorful fabrics and be inspired to "play" with African wax prints every time you sew! Attendees receive an informative handout and a sample of Ankara fabric.

Sat Feb 28 10:30am-11:00am

Note: Space is limited. All sessions are on a first come first served basis.
